Employers Against Domestic Violence invites you to join the Massachusetts launch of #MoveToEndDV featuring keynote speaker
Lieutenant Governor Karyn Polito.

Learn how your company can join businesses across the country donating products and services to shelters and victims and survivors of domestic violence. Become part of the change in the way your community responds to and supports ending domestic violence.

This networking breakfast brings together central Massachusetts domestic violence agencies with companies committed to assisting survivors.

Supported by your local area Chamber of Commerce:
